Green steel

Fastmarkets' assessment of flat steel reduced carbon emissions, daily inferred, exw China was 3,460-4,270 yuan per tonne on Monday, down by 20-30 yuan per tonne from 3,480-4,300 yuan per tonne on Friday.

This was assessed based on Fastmarkets' fortnightly price assessment of flat steel reduced carbon emissions differential, exw China, which calculates the premium for flat-rolled reduced carbon emissions steel over products produced from the traditional blast furnace-based route and came in at 0-800 yuan ($0-110) per tonne on Friday December 6.

Market chatter

"Stimulus expectations will take the backseat temporarily after China's top authorities wrapped up key meetings last week, which indicates limited upward momentum in [Chinese steel] prices in the near term with demand being seasonally slow," an industry analyst in eastern China said.

Shanghai Futures Exchange

The most-traded SHFE May HRC contract closed at 3,493 yuan per tonne on Monday, up by 2 yuan per tonne from the closing price of 3,491 yuan per tonne on Friday.

Steel plate news

US domestic plate prices fall in final weeks of 2024; plate market expects rebound in early 2025

By Melissa VanDervort - Tuesday 17 December

The US domestic plate market remained soft in the week to Tuesday December 17, but sources said plate is ready to turn a corner in January 2025, shortly after the inauguration of President-elect Donald Trump.

Market participants across the board were anticipating the change to a Trump administration and said this was long overdue for the plate market and the larger steel industry in the US.

Fastmarkets' weekly price assessment for steel cut-to-length plate carbon grade, fob mill US was $42 per hundredweight ($840 per short ton) on Tuesday, down by 2.33% from $43 per cwt on December 10.

Inputs were collected in a range of $41-43 per cwt, representing offers and assessments of general market activity.

Plate sources reported that domestic mills have lowered their plate prices since last week, based on continued soft demand and minimal spot trading on the domestic market.

Domestic mills raised prices but met resistance from the market, a distributor said.

"The [domestic] market is still slow, but there has been an increase in re-quoting private [sector] jobs. I'm not sure if it's real interest or if people [in the industry] are trying to be proactive by sending quotes," the distributor said.

"I think it's people [in the domestic plate industry] being slow and looking for something to do [in the seasonal holiday doldrums]," the distributor added.

Market participants expected a substantial shift in domestic plate demand in late first quarter of 2025, and sources anticipated demand would increase after January 20, 2025, when Trump is inaugurated into office.

Lead times remained firm at three to four weeks.
