could potentially create some supply issues and therefore allow European mills to grab a bigger market share, a market source suggested.

“The only viable import option for HRC was Turkey, since they could offer late November arrival – so before CBAM kicks in. But the Turkish quota [for HRC] is exhausted [for the third quarter of 2025], which means new volumes that arrive now are accumulating in European ports and the new quota will be consumed even faster. It’s getting too risky,” a third buyer in Italy said.

For example, as of September 1, Turkey has practically fully consumed its 402,732 tonnes quota for July-September 2025, European customs data show.

The latest HRC offers from Turkey were reported at €520-540 per tonne cfr to Italy, including the anti-dumping duty.

Asian suppliers, who usually tend to offer lower prices, could only offer December-January arrival, which was deemed “too risky” by European buyers, considering looming new trade measures to replace safeguards and Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism implementation in January 2026.

Chinese HRC prices narrow downward with futures prices trading rangebound

By Zihuan Pan - Tuesday 02 September

China’s domestic spot steel hot-rolled coil (HRC) prices narrowed downward on Tuesday September 2, with futures prices for the flat steel product trading rangebound amid demand concerns.

Rising inventories and the absence of a strong demand pick-up despite the arrival of the traditional high season in September-October, added to demand concerns across the market and have weighed on HRC prices so far this week, industry sources told Fastmarkets.

Mills in the top steelmaking hub of Tangshan in northern China are expected to recover production after the V-Day military parade is held in Beijing on September 3. This, coupled with the lack of policy stimulus expectations, has failed to underpin HRC prices of late, sources added.

The most-traded HRC contract on the Shanghai Futures Exchange traded rangebound on Tuesday and finished the trading day just 5 yuan per tonne lower compared with Monday’s close.

Domestic

Fastmarkets’ price assessment for steel hot-rolled coil domestic, ex-whs Eastern China was 3,350-3,360 yuan ($469-471) per tonne on Tuesday, narrowing downward by 10 yuan per tonne from 3,350-3,370 yuan per tonne on Monday September 1.

Export

Fastmarkets calculated its steel hot-rolled coil index export, fob main port China at $474.50 per tonne on Tuesday, down by $0.17 per tonne from $474.67 per tonne on Monday.

The HRC export index also saw moderate changes on Tuesday given the rangebound trading on the SHFE.

Small, privately-owned mills kept their HRC export offers stable at $474-480 per tonne FOB at base prices for 3.0-3.5 mm thick, 1,250-1,500 mm wide SS400/Q2 second quarter35-grade HRC on Tuesday, unchanged from Monday.

Larger, or state-owned mills, offered HRC exports at base prices of $470-510 per tonne FOB, widening downward from $480-510 per tonne FOB last week.

Some mills have refrained from giving offers so far this week because the recent sharp losses in futures prices kept them in wait-and-see mode.

Green steel

Fastmarkets’ assessment of flat steel reduced carbon emissions, daily inferred, exw China was 3,350-3,860 yuan per tonne on Tuesday, narrowing downward by 10 yuan per tonne from 3,350-3,870 yuan per tonne on Monday.

This was assessed based on Fastmarkets’ fortnightly price assessment of flat steel reduced carbon emissions differential, exw China, which calculates the premium for flat-rolled reduced carbon emissions steel over products produced from the traditional blast furnace-based route and came in at 0-500 yuan per tonne on Friday.

Market Chatter

“Weak demand is thinning out margins at mills, which will likely weigh on prices for [steelmaking] raw materials and resultantly pull finished steel prices lower,” an industry analyst in eastern China said.

Shanghai Futures Exchange

The most-traded SHFE January HRC futures contract closed at 3,298 yuan per tonne on Tuesday, down by 5 yuan per tonne from Monday’s closing price of 3,303 yuan per tonne.

Rebar news

UAE rebar demand strong, import prices increase

By Serife Durmus - Tuesday 02 September

Demand for steel rebar in the United Arab Emirates was strong during the seven days to Tuesday September 2 after a local rebar price increase was announced, sources told Fastmarkets.

Domestic rebar

Emirates Steel, the biggest steelmaker in the UAE, raised its September rolling prices to 2,590 dirhams ($705) per tonne on August 21, up by 110 dirhams per tonne.

The company sold rebar around 2,480 dirhams per tonne ex-works, and re-rollers in the country sold rebar at 2,290-2,350 dirhams per tonne ex-works during the seven days to Tuesday.

Fastmarkets' weekly price assessment for steel reinforcing bar (rebar) domestic, exw UAE was 2,290-2,480 dirhams per tonne on Tuesday, unchanged week on week.

Rebar imports

Oman-origin rebar was sold at $640 per tonne CPT according to one source, while another source assessed prices will be around $626 per tonne CPT.

Fastmarkets' weekly price assessment for steel reinforcing bar (rebar) import, cfr Jebel Ali, UAE on a theoretical-weight basis was $626-640 per tonne on
